Temple College.

The Stanley Co. of America will cooperate in the establishment of the new course, early in January, 1921, when the initial class will be started. In making the announcement it is indicated that, should the move prove successful, the Stanley Co. will arrange to endow a permanent chair for the instruction of this branch at Temple College. The officials of the University will co-operate for encouragement of the highest standard of photoplays.
